

Join Detroit Opera for this upcoming FREE community event celebrating and exploring the life of Malcolm X in anticipation of Anthony Davis' opera X: The Life and Times of Malcolm X, premiering at the Detroit Opera House May 14-22, 2022. For tickets visit DetroitOpera.org

Thursday May 5, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.

Overture to Opera: X: The Life and Times of Malcolm X

At the Beth-El Center
8801 Woodward Ave. at Gladstone St., Detroit

In celebration of Detroit Opera's new production of X: The Life and Times of Malcolm X, join the Isaac Agree Downtown Synagogue, Breakers Covenant Church International, and Detroit Opera for an evening of performance and discussion. In examining the life and legacy of Malcolm X, this event will ask the questions, "How can we foster understanding and connection between communities? And how can the arts play a role in connecting and uniting us?" Moderated by Rabbi Ariana Silverman, featuring Detroit Opera Artistic Director Yuval Sharon, composer Anthony Davis, and Detroit Opera Artist-in-Residence Davóne Tines.

Complimentary parking in rear of the center, enter from Gladstone Street.
